

Progress Report Dates - UIL Eligibility Check Dates
2009-2010

Teachers will give out three-week progress reports to all of their students' midway through each grading period. These reports are intended to inform the parents and/or guardians of student progress. Parents and/or guardians should ask students for these reports and should contact a teacher immediately if they have not received one on each of the dates listed below. Also, the days marked with asterisks ()* represent the day that UIL Eligibility Checks will be conducted via the computer with email verification. All grades for three-week grading period must be in the computer by that date. If a student has been absent, an "I" should be entered into the computer. A student is not eligible until the "I" is replaced with a passing grade.
