

The Mobile Broadcast Cart

Ideas for use

Ideas for Use

- Offering a video club for students. They might be willing to host weekly "news" broadcasts for your campus and offer to provide the crew for other campus programming.
- Offering regular shows from the library on technology training, new books or electronic resources for staff and students to view.
- Working with your principal to broadcast announcements from the office on a regular basis.
- Starting a video "book club" for students to discuss their latest reading with another campus at a designated time.

Ideas for Use

- Working with other technology course teachers to integrate analog video broadcasts into their students' experiences.
- Offering teachers the opportunities to "meet" with teachers on another campus for staff development and discussion.
- Getting permission to broadcast speakers and special events as they occur in your building.
- Turning the unit on in your library and allow teachers the opportunity to "look in" and see what's going on during the day.