

December 12, 2008

Dear Parents and Families,

As you gather for the holidays, we wanted to share information with you that was recently confirmed about the 2009 Plano ISD senior high schools graduation commencement ceremonies.

The commencement ceremonies will be hosted on Monday, June 8, at the Dallas Convention Center located at 650 S. Griffin Street, Dallas, Texas 75202. This will be a lovely facility at which to host our graduates; however, it will be necessary to issue tickets for the admittance of family members and guests. The number of tickets issued will be based upon the number of graduates to be accommodated at the facility. The ceremonies are scheduled as follows including the number of tickets to be issued per graduate:

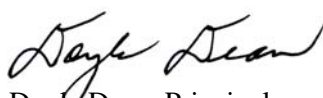

Plano East High School – 10:00 A.M., six (6) tickets
Plano West Senior High School – 2:00 P.M., eight (8) tickets
Plano Senior High School – 7:00 P.M., six (6) tickets

Again, we wanted to share these details with you as you visit with family and friends during the holidays. Additional details about this change in venue and the ticketing system will be forthcoming in the spring semester.

We wish you a safe and happy holiday season.

Sincerely,

Karen McDonald, Principal
Plano East Senior High School
