

PLANO SENIOR HIGH

Student Congress

General Session 12/4/06

The General Session of Student Congress was called to order on December 4, 2006, at 6:50 by the president, Shea Thompson. There were 102 present. After the Pledge of Allegiance, led by the Vice president, Kevin Case, the Senior Class President, Melanie Lin, gave the Thought of the Day.

Recording Secretary, in place of Corresponding Secretary, announced the thank you letters received from teachers for their luncheon, Mr. and Mrs. Barton for their baby shower and the Blood Care Center for the holidays.

Next, each committee gave its report: Community Service debriefed members on the decorating of Medical Center of Plano for the Thanksgiving holidays. The decorations, they believed, brought happiness into many sick people's lives. They also asked that everyone try to contribute to their 3rd period's Adopt-a-Child. January 28, CS will be participating in the Very Special Arts Festival and will be face painting, bracelet making and picture frame making. Lastly, they announced they will be doing Exam Survival Kits for the students and will have cute quotes for the day to help get them through the week, December 11-15. Faculty Relations announced the wonderful response they received from the gracious teachers that attended the potato luncheon. FR will also be doing a Exam survival kit for the teachers on December 18. They also announced the teachers of the month: Math; Mrs. Hendricks, Science; Mrs. Carlson, English; Mrs. Holsinger, History; Mrs. Woodahl, Foreign Language; Mrs. Lubbers, Special Education; Mrs. Hines, and Electives; Mr. Harris. Health and Safety announced another Four Lives Club donation will be taking place on February 8th. Public Relations moved to have an Elementary School Holiday Project on December 8th at Ann Frank Elementary. They planned to make snowmen and read a story in 7 1st grade classes. The motion was seconded and carried. They announced the success of Good Sportsmanship League, which ended up raising $200 for City House. School Enhancement moved to have a Blackout Night in Congress on January 8 to encourage conservation of energy. The motion was seconded and carried. Student Services moved to have a sports schedule posted around the school. The schedule will include the dates and times of all sports activities for each month. The motion was seconded and passed. Unity reminded everyone of the Holiday Party December 11 and told everyone to bring their food at least 10 minute early. Lastly, Student Relations announced the student of the week, both senior and junior. The junior was Kelsey Lott and the Senior was Caitlin Ellidge. Then Megan Pieper, senior chair of Public Relations, announced the upcoming

Mr. Plano and asked for nominations for Student Congress and encouraged others to try to get other organizations to nominate a senior boy to represent their club. Nominations were then held. Nominated were Taylor Bailey, Kevin Case, David Kunesh and Alex Seglar. All nominees gave a speech to explain why they believed they could symbolize the members as Mr. Congress. Alex Seglar and Kevin Case came out with the most votes. Then the members voted once more for the final representative. The winner of Congress' representative was Kevin Case, Vice President.

During the Sponsors note, Mrs. Roe read 24 Things to Always Remember and one thing to Never Forget to help motivate and inspire members.

Senior Alex Seglar moved to adjourn the meeting. The motion was seconded and the meeting was adjourned at 7:40PM.

Respectfully submitted,

Megan O'Neill
Recording Secretary
